

Please do not weaken the law that created NJ's do not call list.

I used to get many calls - now that I'm on NJ's don not call list I only get a couple. At least now, all the calls display a number that I can call them back on or choose not to answer. One time I spent several hours on hold trying to contact one company that shouldn't have been calling. They don't call anymore.